

The Four

Horsemen

Vicente Blasco Ibanez the author of the great war novel "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," which has been put into screen display by the Metro. This is one of the greatest pictures yet produced, covering in its action scenes in the Argentine and most vivid showings of the horrors of the war.

The seriousness of the situation is relieved by excellent touches of humor—all in good taste. The visions as well as the textual announcements augment the atmosphere. In the fate of the individuals is intimated the vastness of the greatest tragedy in all history.

Rudolph Valentine as Juliu Desnoyers.

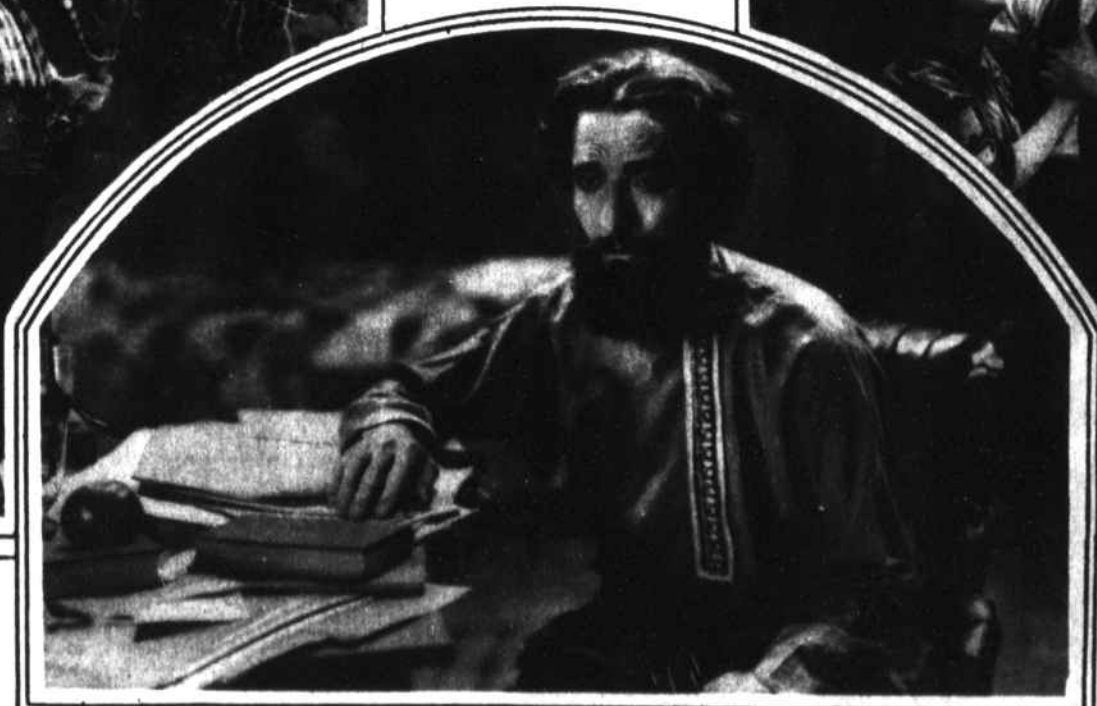

Joseph Swickard as Marcelo Desnoyers.

Alice Terry as Marguerite Laurier.

Pomeroy Cannon as Madariaga.

Alan Hale as Karl Von Rartrott, and Mable Van Buren as Elena, his wife.

The Russian who cited the prophecy of the four horsemen, — Conquest — War — Famine — Death.

Nigel De Brulier as Tchernoff.